Altium Appoints VP Investor Relations & Corporate Affairs

Sydney, Australia - 19 February 2015 - Electronics design software company Altium Limited (ASX:ALU) has announced the appointment of Ms Kim Besharati to the role of VP Investor Relations & Corporate Affairs.

Altium CEO, Aram Mirkazemi, has welcomed Ms Besharati's promotion to VP Investor Relations & Corporate Affairs, which strengthens Altium's senior leadership team and increases its commitment to shareholders and potential investors. Mr Mirkazemi stated that "Kim will be responsible for Altium's relationship with the financial community and will play a significant part in our engagement with investors and analysts."

Since joining Altium in 2012, Ms Besharati has been a key member of Altium's Corporate team and has been at the forefront of the planning and execution of Altium's corporate strategy.

Ms Besharati has over 15 years experience in senior management roles with Australian government and financial institutions. Prior to joining Altium, Ms Besharati held senior roles within the Treasury Department for the State of Tasmania, specialising in the analysis of economic and financial matters and the development of public policy platforms. During her time with Treasury, from 2003 to 2009, Ms Besharati was appointed as the Treasurer's nominee to the Board of Directors of the Tasmanian Government Superannuation Fund and served as a member of that Fund's Investment Committee. In the early 2000s, Ms Besharati was a Research Manager at Macquarie Bank.

Kim holds a Bachelor of Economics degree from the University of Tasmania.
